

Students' evaluation of the meeting in Rome 29.11.-03.12.2012

In Rome we asked all the students participating the meeting:

7. What did you like most about the meeting in Rome?

- Being social
- Debating, meeting new people
- Evening in the pub, meeting new people
- Getting to know people from different countries and discovering similarities and differences.
- Hospitality and teamwork
- International groups, the city
- International groups.
- Living in Italian family, to get view of how Italians really are
- Meeting new people (ten times)
- Meeting new people and talking about their views.
- Meeting new people when working in groups, finding out about different peoples' countries, eating good food
- Meeting new people, with different ideals, cultures, and languages.
- Meeting new people, improve English
- Meeting new people, improve English, the city

Students' evaluation of the meeting in Rome 29.11.-03.12.2012

- Meeting new people, work in international groups.
- Meeting people from different countries
- New cultures and different opinions
- Relevant topic, the debates were successful.
- Speak English and stay with Italians
- Speak English, meeting new people
- Talk about different cultures
- Watching movies, new people.
- Work with international groups, new people
- Working with international people, new students.

8. Comments on the project work:

- Others didn't work as well, didn't have enthusiasm.
- Others were too shy, didn't show initiative.
- New experiences.
- During the projects it was clear, that a lot of the students weren't used to this kind of work
- Improve English
- Rome was beautiful.
- Very good.
- It was boring to talk about topics again and again (Mohammed Video)
- Very nice
- Project was cool.
- Debating is more interesting, than working out pros and cons.
- The conditions should be the same for all schools, because there were very different interpretations of the tasks.
- Beautiful and interesting.
- Would do it again
- Chance to improve English
- The pros and cons was a brilliant idea.
- It was cool.
- The project was good.
- Too much time for working in groups, sometimes. Plan a day to visit Rome as a group.
- Great experience, fun.
- Project work is useful, opens your mind about the situation in Europe.